DENIM DAY

Denim Day was established in 1992 after a rape conviction was overturned because the victim wore tight jeans, which, according the court's ruling, implied consent. What started out as a local campaign to bring awareness to victim blaming, has become an annual event in which millions of people across the world wear denim as a symbol of support for victims of sexual violence and attitudes surrounding harassment, assault and abuse.

Denim Day is April 26, 2024
